Kinnickinnic River Land Trust Announces New Board Members

[RIVER FALLS, WI] The Kinnickinnic River Land Trust, Inc. (KRLT) today announced the election of two new Board members to its Board of Directors at its recent annual meeting. According to incoming Board President Dan Wilkening, “I am pleased to announce that River Falls business and community leaders Dale Jorgenson and Joel Larsen were elected to serve a three-year term on the Board of the Kinnickinnic River Land Trust. We look forward to their service on the Board and the special skills and expertise they will bring to our organization.”

Dale Jorgenson is a life-long resident of River Falls, is the owner of Riverland Laser, Inc., a successful local small business. Joel Larsen is Vice President and Commercial Lender at the First National Bank of River Falls, and has lived in River Falls for twenty years.

Also elected to a second three year term on the board were River Falls resident Michelle Bredahl, Vice President, Business Banking, First State Bank and Trust, Oak Park Heights, MN; and Kent Johnson, Manager, Environmental Monitoring Section, Metropolitan Council of St. Paul, MN.

The KRLT also recognized the excellent service of retiring board members President Jack Kenefick, River Falls; Bill Garrard, Minneapolis; and Jan Zoerb, River Falls. Retiring board members were presented with a plaque of appreciation of their service to the organization.

KRLT is a community-based non-profit organization with over 600 individual and business members. KRLT has protected over 2,000 acres of land and 8 miles of stream bank in the Kinnickinnic River Watershed.
