Title: Scholarship Winner

The 2006-2007 Timothy Huston/Kinnickinnic River Land Trust Endowed Scholarship winner is David Tollefson, a University of Wisconsin-River Falls Environmental Science major with a minor in Hydrology. Tollefson is a junior from Waseca, Minnesota and has worked for the past 4 years in the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Natural Resource Conservation Service. He is active in a variety of University clubs. Pictured with Tollefson (right) are Brent Sittlow, KRLT board president and Tim Huston, scholarship co-sponsor and former KRLT board member. The UW-River Falls Foundation recognized the Huston/KRLT scholarship commitment with an 1874 Founders Award.
