

Press Release
January 25, 2007
Subject: KRLT/RF Community Television program

The Kinnickinnic River Land Trust (KRLT) and the River Falls Community Television (RFC-TV16) have produced a 17 minute program about the KRLT and its activities, as well as a photographic tour of the 140 square mile Kinnickinnic River watershed. The new program, which will begin to be shown on RFC-TV16 on February 2nd, showcases the beauty of the Kinnickinnic River as it flows from its headwaters and upper reaches, through the city of River Falls before beginning its descent through the "Kinni canyon" and into the St. Croix River. The program will be shown at 8 pm on Feb 2, 4 & 5 and other various times throughout the week. Reprints of the photographs used in the program are available through the KRLT. The KRLT is a non profit organization dedicated to working with the community to protect the natural resources and scenic beauty of the Kinnickinnic River watershed. Memberships are tax-deductible. Call the KRLT at 425-5738 for more information about memberships or photo reprints.